

Gov. William Milliken welcomes the 1969 Alpenfest Queen Barbara Wolf, the 1970 queen candidates and other Gaylord representatives to his Lansing office in this 1970 photo. From left, Pam Chandler, Denise Jacobs, State Rep. Bob Davis, Chris Field, Jenny Hilliker, Marilyn Sehl, Alpenfest General Manager Jim

Mongeau, Kay Robinson, Wolf, Milliken, Pam McKenzie, Cindy Richards, Donna Knable, Marna Smith, Sherry Cogswell, Kyla Widrig, Sharon Wegmeyer, Linda Hayes and Norma Elgas, pageant chairwoman. Not shown is Liz Halter, who was crowned 1970 Alpenfest Queen.

Rating Alpine Village talent, poise

Visibility, enthusiasm, involvement and knowledge will be scored.

A reception at the Holiday Inn will be held immediately following the queen's coronation.

Reintroduced this year will be a production number featuring the contestants.

Fittingly, it chooses its theme from 25 years past in a production number from the musical "Grease," set in the 1960s.

Candidates for the 1989 crown are Lori Oliverson, Susan Brinkman, Stacy Guthrie, Tammy Klee, Carolyn McDowell, Robin Richards, Trisha Miller, Jennifer Sysko and Jodi Donth.

Alpenfest Queen candidates 1968 pageant at Gaylord High School popped out of boxes for the School.

This Page Courtesy Of

Standard Products Company

594 Alpine Road Gaylord 732-5121