At the third annual Alpine Festival, Ernst Theiler, the Consul General of Switzerland in Chicago, was on hand to crown the queen.

Sandy Heska, daughter of Jerome and Bernie Heska, became the third Alpine Queen.

A featured event at the Alpine Festival was the laying of the cornerstone of the new County-City Building downtown.

A US flag was raised at the beginning of the ceremony and flew throughout the ritual. It was discovered later that the flag was an old one bearing only 48 stars.

Elected officials of Otsego County and the City of Gaylord were honored at the annual Honors Luncheon at Hidden Valley. Theiler was the featured speaker.

Miss Tone Jo Abberante, the reigning Miss Michigan, appeared in the Grand Parade.

The Alpine Festival was proclaimed officially by the Michigan Legislature.

The Gaylord State Bank float won first prize in the senior division in the Grand Parade.
