

1974

Sparkle, frenzy; Michaywe' hosts its first festival golf tournament

Three judges were honored at the annual Alpenfest Honors Luncheon this year. Judge William A. Porter of the 87th District Court, Judge Daniel F. Walsh of the 46th Judicial Circuit, and Judge Boyd C. Baird of the Otsego County Probate Court were honored.

The Herald Times published its first annual Alpenfest supplement, saluting the festival and welcoming visitors.

Jean Marie Snook, daughter of Fred and Dottie Snook, reigned as Alpenfest Queen. Snook was sponsored by Wickes Lumber.

Emily Halverson was director of the queen's pageant, while husband Don served as technical and lighting director.

Michaywe' hosted the first annual Alpenfest - Michaywe' Golf Tournament at the Michaywe' Hills Golf Course.

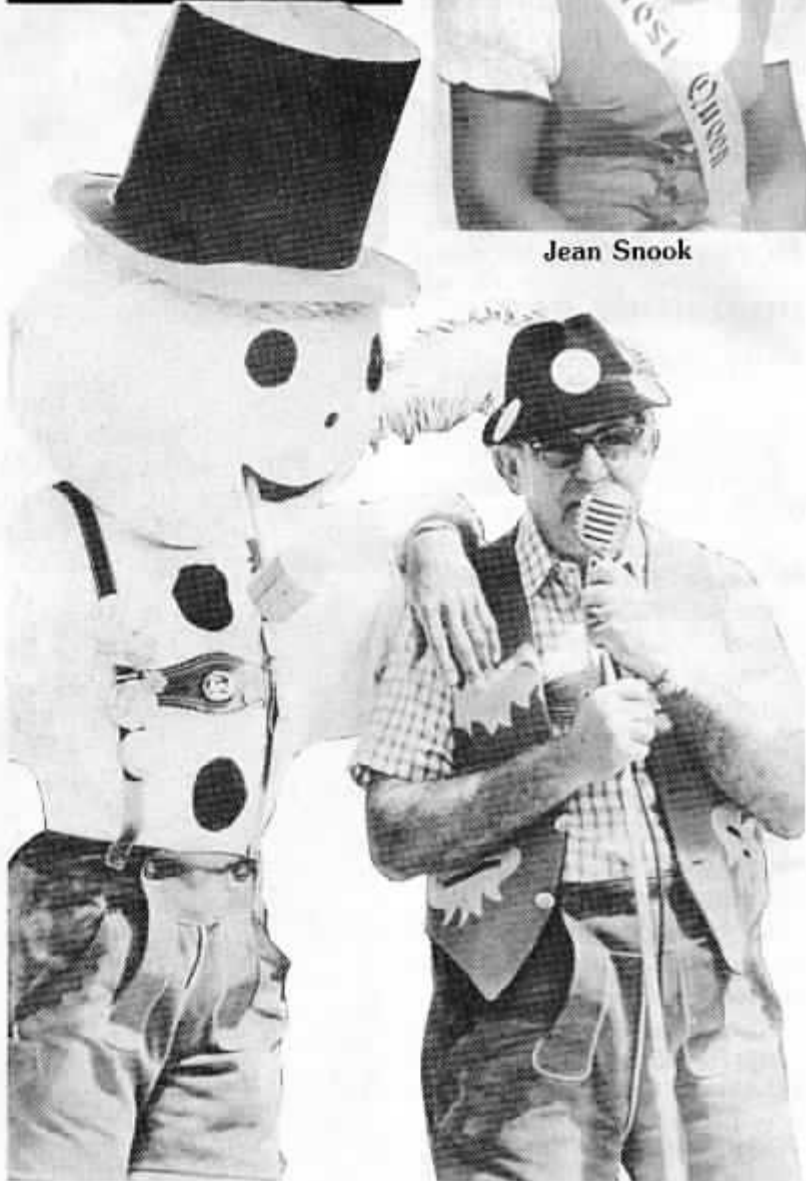

The July 25 edition of The Herald Times said, "The 10th annual celebration of Gaylord's adopted Alpine heritage drew thousands of persons together in a week filled with sparkling weather and frenzied activity."

Glen's Market won the prize for the best float at the Alpenfest Grand Parade.

Margie Polus, 12, took top honors at the pet parade with her two pet goats.

Jean Snook

Frosty can't get a word in at sunny Alpenfest.

This Page Courtesy Of

Central Printing Corporation

1001 Dickerson Road Gaylord 732-2823

LaRosa & Co.

199 West McCoy Road Gaylord 732-4800