

New Farrar Block

An illustration is shown above of Farrar's new block and a portion of another block owned by this gentleman. The new block was erected late last year, the finishing touches being put on this spring. The corner store will be occupied by the Michigan Mutual Bank, next is the hardware store of Crego & Pelton, Wilson Bros. having the third store. The building is substantial and has a pleasing appearance.