

Johnathan Putman, House Mover

The business of raising and moving buildings requires a level head and steady nerves. Johnathan Putman is Gaylord's representative in this capacity and his efficiency has been amply demonstrated time and again. Mr. Putman has all the tools and appurtenances necessary to carry on the business, knows what to do and when to do it, consequently his jobs always terminate successfully. The gentleman has done a vast amount of work throughout this section and the service rendered has been universally satisfactory and we have no hesitancy in recommending him to all who have work of this kind they wish done. Mr. Putman is a thoroughly reliable gentleman.
