

The first Gaylord car was made in 1910. About fifty cars were sold in the first year. In 1911-12, the company offered new alterations to this car. But in 1913, the last car was sold and the big dream to make Gaylord the "Detroit of the North," quietly faded away.